Sept 12 9/11: The Great Illusion

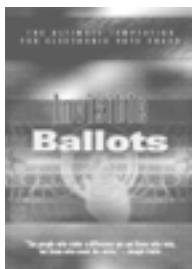

A new documentary that proves that 9/11 was an inside job. The narrative of facts, reinforced by visual evidence, poignant images, and original music, will certainly compel the viewer toward a greater awareness of the New World Order manipulations.

Sept 19 The Yes Men: The Horribly Stupid Stunt (25min)

As pseudo representatives of the World Trade Organization, Andy and Mike delivered shocking satires of WTO policy to audiences of so-called "experts." At an international trade law conference in Salzburg, Austria, they (i.e. the WTO) proposed a free-market solution to democracy: auctioning votes to the highest bidder. Hilarious! Before You Don't Vote... is a critical and witty video that features fast-paced, cross-cut interviews with over fifty politically involved Americans you won't meet every day. From widely diverse backgrounds, ethnic groups, ages, and ideologies, they comment honestly on our democracy's past, present, and future. It offers realistic advice for the angry, apathetic, apolitical, and alienated about why we should participate. For details go to http://www.mediarights.org/search/fil_detail.php?fil_id=05999.

Sept 26 INVISIBLE BALLOTS: A Temptation For Electronic Vote Fraud (50min)

INVISIBLE BALLOTS is an in-depth exposé of all-electronic computerized voting. Underneath the radar of public scrutiny, election officials and voting machine manufacturers are putting into service tens of thousands of touch screen voting machines that cannot be relied upon for accuracy or security from tampering. Voting is swiftly coming under the control of private corporations using secret software with little or no independent oversight. These companies and the people who run them are rife with corruption and insider alliances. Mysterious election upsets are increasing, and verified recounts are impossible. If we are to preserve representative government, the public must learn the secrets revealed in Invisible Ballots and take action quickly.
